A 030	Continued From page 6 the caller thought staff K took a picture and laughed at resident #6 while the resident had an aggressive and episode. The BOM said on at 4:15 PM the caller was to come and give a written statement but did not and did not return to work after that. He said the accusation was investigated, the nurse was suspended while the investigation was conducted, and Adult Protective Services was called. Per the statement, he said the nurse laughed with another resident and her phone camera went off. He added the closed-circuit video could not ascertain if the staff took a picture and /or laughed at the resident, but there seemed to be a flash. Staff were interviewed and no one could confirm the allegation. The nurse was placed in corrective action and in-serviced again in residents rights. She has returned to work. The video he said was silent, therefore it was difficult to determine what went on. The Adult Protective Services report was dated, 12 days after the BOM was made aware of the allegation. On at 4 PM, the administrator said that she was made aware of the allegation on, she investigated right away, was unable to substantiate and per facility policy did not report to Adult Protective Services. Review of the facility's, fraud and wrong doing policy indicated that "if the suspected, fraud or wrongdoing is substantiated, a written report would be made to the appropriate licensing/regulatory agency, the responsible party, the Ombudsman and Adult Protective Services.
