The care of the residents during a declared state of emergency and that the written policies and procedures in a manner that makes them readily available either in electronic or paper format, upon request and failed to maintain a copy of its approved plan in a manner that makes the plan readily available at the licensee's physical address for review by a legally authorized entity. Findings: Review of a binder labeled emergency management revealed it was disorganized, paged directed to other pages that were not in the binder. It was difficult to ascertain that it was an emergency power plan. The review revealed no evidence that policies and procedure been developed. In an interview with the administrator on at 1 1 PM, who said she did not have any additional documentation available for review. | A 200                                                                          |                                                                                                                          |                          |                                                        |

While in an overcapacity status, each provider must furnish or arrange for appropriate care and services to all clients. In addition, the agency may approve requests for overcapacity in excess of 15 days, which approvals may be based upon satisfactory justification and need as provided by the receiving and sending providers.(3)(a) An inactive license may be issued to a licensee subject to this section when the provider is located in a geographic area in which a state of emergency was declared by the Governor if the provider:1. Suffered damage to its operation during the state of emergency.2. Is currently licensed.3. Does not have a provisional license.4. Will be temporarily unable to provide services but is reasonably expected to resume services within 12 months.(b) An inactive license may be issued for a period not to exceed 12 months but may be renewed by the agency for up to 12 additional months upon demonstration to the agency of progress toward reopening. A request by a licensee for an inactive license or to extend the previously approved inactive period must be submitted in writing to the agency, accompanied by written justification for the inactive license, which states the beginning and ending dates of inactivity and includes a plan for the transfer of any clients to other providers and appropriate licensure fees. Upon agency approval, the licensee shall notify clients of any necessary discharge or transfer as required by authorizing statutes or applicable rules. The beginning of the inactive licensure period shall be the date the provider ceases operations.
