(8) If the agency, through its receipt of the adverse incident reports prescribed in this part or through any investigation, has reasonable belief that conduct by a staff member or employee of a licensed facility is grounds for disciplinary action by the appropriate board, the agency shall report this fact to such regulatory board. (9) The adverse incident reports and preliminary adverse incident reports required under this section are confidential as provided by law and are not discoverable or admissible in any civil or administrative action, except in disciplinary proceedings by the agency or appropriate regulatory board. (10) The agency may adopt rules necessary to administer this section. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on record review and interview, the facility failed to file an Adverse Incident Report (AIRS) for an event reported to law enforcement personnel for investigation for one resident (Resident #1) of one sampled resident, who was a victim of . Findings included: In a record review of the facility adverse incident report binder conducted on . there was no . incident report for Resident #1. The policy entitled "Risk Management & Patient Safety AIRS User Guide for Assisted Living Facilities" revealed one of the outcomes for an AIRS preliminary report to be completed on day 1 and a full report by day 15 is "an event that is reported to law enforcement or its personnel for investigation."
