(2) RESIDENT TRUST FUNDS. Funds or other property received by the facility belonging to or due a resident, including personal funds, must be held as trust funds and expended only for the resident's account. Resident funds or property may be held in one bank account if a separate written accounting for each resident is maintained. A separate bank account is required for facility funds; co-mingling resident funds with facility funds is prohibited. Written accounting procedures for resident trust funds must include income and expense records of the trust fund, including the source and disposition of the funds.

This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by:
Based on record review and interview with the Administrator, the facility continued to fail to maintain separate bank accounts to prevent co-mingling of facility funds with resident funds and the Administrator's personal expenses for 17
