A 079	Continued From page 2 (b) Notwithstanding the minimum staffing requirements specified in paragraph (a), all facilities, including those composed of apartments, must have enough qualified staff to provide resident supervision, and to provide or arrange for resident services in accordance with the residents' scheduled and unscheduled service needs, resident contracts, and resident care standards as described in rule 59A-36.007, F.A.C. (c) The facility must maintain a written work schedule that reflects its 24-hour staffing pattern for a given time period. Upon request, the facility must make the daily work schedules of direct care staff available to residents or their representatives. (d) The facility must provide staff immediately when the agency determines that the requirements of paragraph (a) are not met. The facility must immediately increase staff above the minimum levels established in paragraph (a), if the agency determines that adequate supervision and care are not being provided to residents, resident care standards described in rule 59A-36.007, F.A.C., are not being met, or that the facility is failing to meet the terms of residents' contracts. The agency will consult with the facility administrator and residents regarding any determination that additional staff is required. Based on the recommendations of the local fire safety authority, the agency may require additional staff when the facility fails to meet the fire safety standards described in rule chapter 69A-40, F.A.C., until such time as the local fire safety authority informs the agency that fire safety requirements are being met. 1. A 026	Continued From page 19 A tour of the facility was conducted on at approximately 12:50 PM. There was no activities calendar posted in the facility. There were two separate TV rooms that are gender specific, and both had residents watching TV. An interview was conducted with Resident #16. The resident stated, "We watch tv every day, take a nap before lunch or go to our room." The resident stated she would like to do something different. Resident #2 stated, "We don't have activities on the weekends". She was not aware why this was. On , the activity room was observed with 3 sealed puzzles on the table and an unfinished activity calendar. Staff A was interviewed on at 3:05 PM. Staff A confirmed residents watch TV and take naps until the lunch meal at 2:00 PM or they have an option to go to their room. They state, "We eat supper at 6:00PM, then go outside to the patio and watch a movie." She also stated that the activity calendar is not posted because someone spilled something on it and she did not have time to finish it. Staff A was not able to show any resident participation in any resident meetings, committees, resident council, suggestion box, or group discussions. Class III	A 026
