additional care is provided by a licensed hospice, and the resident is under the care of a physician who agrees that the physical needs of the resident can be met at the facility. The resident must have a plan of care which delineates how the facility and the hospice will meet the scheduled and unscheduled needs of the resident, including, if applicable, staffing for nursing care.
(d)1. Except for a resident who is receiving hospice services as provided in paragraph (c), a facility may not admit or retain a resident who is bedridden or who requires 24-hour nursing supervision. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "bedridden" means that a resident is confined to a bed because of the inability to:
a. Move, turn, or reposition without total physical assistance;
b. Transfer to a chair or wheelchair without total physical assistance; or
c. Sit safely in a chair or wheelchair without personal assistance or a physical .
2. A resident may continue to reside in a facility if, during residency, he or she is bedridden for no more than 7 consecutive days.
3. If a facility is licensed to provide extended congregate care, a resident may continue to reside in a facility if, during residency, he or she is bedridden for no more than 14 consecutive days.

(2) A resident may not be moved from one facility to another without consultation with and agreement from the resident or, if applicable, the resident's representative or designee or the resident's family, guardian, surrogate, or attorney in fact. In the case of a resident who has been placed by the department or the Department of Children and Families, the administrator must notify the appropriate contact person in the

The Administrator told resident #2 to stay 50 away from resident #1 at all times. The facility did not conduct a thorough investigation to ensure that any other residents were affected by resident #2. There was no documented evidence that the facility contacted law enforcement on initial date when resident #1 informed the Administrator about the alleged incident by resident #2 against resident #1 (victim). In further review, there was no documentation that the facility initiated a referral to the hotline as required when any complaints about as required. A review of the facility's and neglect policy and procedures that was revised on documented that the facility will not tolerate any form of , neglect and , . Furthermore, the policy and procedures documented by the facility will protect the residents from and promote a safe, comfortable and homelike environment. The facility would be responsible for creating a care plan and monitor any needs/interventions to be met such as counseling, 1:1 supervision and treatment and behavior modifications. If a resident (alleged person of interest) does not respond to interventions, continuing to be a threat	A 030

Lastly, the staff was obligated to report knowledge of suspected , neglect and misappropriation immediately to their supervisor. The facility's and neglect policy and procedures did not document any language to call the hotline and law enforcement as required and stated in the state regulations. On at 2:03 PM, an interview with the Administrator stated that he did investigate immediately on , then again on and . He reported the incident immediately to his immediate supervisor as required by the facility's and neglect policy and procedures. On at 2:50 PM, an interview with resident #2 confirmed that he was told to stay 50 away from resident #1 and said that the relationship before this happened was consensual between the two of them and there was no penetration, just only touching. He said that he wished resident #1 well and that she was a nice lady. On at 3:05 PM, an interview with resident #1 confirmed that the Administrator told her that resident #2 was to stay 50 away from her and resident #2 had been staying away from her but much preferred if resident #2 was given a 45-day discharge notice. On at 4:25 PM, an interview with the Administrator confirmed the findings. (Photographic Evidence Obtained)	A 030
