A 092 SS=H	59A-36.012(1) FAC Food Service - General Responsibilities (1) GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES. When food service is provided by the facility, the administrator, or an individual designated in writing by the administrator, must be responsible for total food services and the day-to-day supervision of food services staff. In addition, the following requirements apply: (a) If the designee is an individual who has not completed an approved assisted living facility core training course, such individual must complete the food and nutrition services module of the core training course before assuming responsibility for the facility's food service. The designee is not subject to the 1 hour in-service training in safe food handling practices. (b) If the designee is a certified food manager, certified dietary manager, registered or licensed dietitian, dietetic registered technician, or health department sanitarian, the designee is exempt from the requirement to complete the food and nutrition services module of the core training course before assuming responsibility for the facility's food service as required in paragraph (1)(a) of this rule. (c) An administrator or designee must perform his or her duties in a safe and sanitary manner. (d) An administrator or designee must provide regular meals that meet the nutritional needs of residents, and therapeutic diets as ordered by the resident's health care provider for residents who require special diets. This Statute or Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on observation, interviews, and record review the facility failed to ensure the supervision of food services in a safe and sanitary manner. Findings included: Observations on at 6:55am showed that in the walk-in refrigerator there was a tainted smell. On the shelves of the refrigerator there was a container labeled "pork loin prepared on ", a container labeled "blue cheese prepared on ," and green peppers with soft spots. Additionally in the kitchen was a partially blacken banana in a basket, and a large can of cranberry sauce with a use before date of . According to the United Stated Food Safety and Inspection Service most cooked leftovers should be discarded after 3 to 4 days. A review of the county health department food service inspection report dated showed several violations. The violation included thawing meat in the food preparation sink, staff not using hair , and a broken dishwasher thermometer. During an interview on at 1:49 PM the Administrator stated that the chef was responsible for food handling and that he receives a report from him. The Administrator stated that the chef was on vacation for about a week and was not at the facility currently and that one of the cooks was in charge. The	A 092
