Staff C was observed wheeling Resident #14 into the room and assisting her to sit on a bench along the east wall. Shortly afterward, Staff E brought Resident #15 into the room and seated her next to Resident #14. Staff C and Staff E subsequently brought in Residents #7 and #9 and seated them on the same bench. Before leaving the room, staff positioned two tables in front of the four residents, connecting the tables and leaving no space for any resident to exit. This placement obstructed residents ' ability to move or stand, effectively restricting their mobility. Following this, the two identified staff members brought in four additional residents seated in wheelchairs and positioned them directly in front of the previously seated residents. This placement obstructed the row residents ' view of the room, including the television, which was turned on but not visible to them. Throughout this time, none of the staff remained in the activity room to supervise or monitor the wellbeing of the approximately 15 residents present. At approximately 10:00 a.m., Resident #15 was observed dozing off and leaning sideways onto Resident #14, who was unable to reposition herself due to the limited space and the tables placed directly in front of her.
