IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Licensee:

On January 9, 2024, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a Complaint Investigation at your facility. This letter is formal notice of the imposition of civil fines on the license for your adult family home, located at 18539 73rd Ave NE, Kenmore, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services, pursuant to the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 70.128.160 and Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 388-76-10940.

The civil fines are based on the following violations of the RCW and/or WAC determined by the department in your adult family home and described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated January 9, 2024.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-76-10655(1)(2)(3) Physical and mechanical restraints.

The licensee failed to ensure alternative behavioral interventions were tried before using mechanical restraints on one sampled resident. The licensee also failed to ensure the resident was assessed for the use of restraints and failed to include restraints on the Negotiated Care Plan (NCP). This failure resulted in the resident being mechanically restrained.

This failure resulted in the resident's unreasonable confinement, presumed mental anguish, and placed the resident at risk for diminished quality of life.

NOTE: These are the violations, which resulted in the fines; see the attached Statement of Deficiencies for any additional violations.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or an individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eighty days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, and proceed with the entry of an order of default and/or a default judgment without further proof of your status. Your response to the Department about your status does not constitute an appearance for jurisdictional purposes in any pending litigation nor a waiver of your rights.

If you have any questions, please contact Ann Lee-Hunter, Field Manager, at (253) 341-2633.

Sincerely,
