As a result of the on-site visit(s), the department found that you are not in compliance with the licensing laws and regulations as stated in the cited deficiencies in the enclosed report.

Residential Care Services — 07/09/2026 Date

I understand that to maintain an Assisted Living Facility license, the facility must be in compliance with all the licensing laws and regulations at all times.

Administrator (or Representative) — 7/13/2026 Date

WAC 388-78A-2040 Other requirements.

(2) The assisted living facility must have its building approved by the Washington state fire marshal in order to be licensed.

This requirement was not met as evidenced by:

Based on interview and record review, the facility failed to ensure compliance with the Washington State Patrol Office of State Fire Marshal when the facility failed their second Fire and Life Safety Inspection. This failure placed the residents, staff, and visitors at risk for harm.

Findings included...

Review of records from the Washington State Patrol Office of State Fire Marshal (OSFM), showed that the facility had failed their second Fire and Life Safety Inspection (LSI) on 06/24/2026.

Review of the most recent LSI report, dated 06/24/2026, showed that the facility was found to be out of compliance with International Fire Code (IFC) standards in two out of 18 code requirement categories as follows:

-Approved access shall be provided and maintained for all fire protection systems equipment to permit immediate safe operations and maintenance of such equipment.
Storage, trash and other materials or objects shall not be placed or kept in such a manner that would prevent such equipment from being readily accessible.
- Relocatable power taps and current taps shall be directly connected to the permanently installed receptacles.

In an interview on 07/07/2026 at 11:36 AM, Staff A, Administrator, stated that the facility had 80 beds and that there were 40 residents residing in the facility. Staff A stated the facility was aware that they had failed their first LSI re-inspection (second inspection). Staff A further stated the facility was aware that they were out of compliance with multiple IFC standards.

Plan/Attestation Statement

I hereby certify that I have reviewed this report and have taken or will take active measures to correct this deficiency. By taking this action, Rivers Walk Assisted Living Facility LLC is or will be in compliance with this law and / or regulation on (Date) 6/30/2026.

In addition, I will implement a system to monitor and ensure continued compliance with this requirement.
