S0000	OPENING COMMENTS Rules and Regulations utilized for this survey are: Rules and Regulations for Program Administration of Nursing Care Facilities, Chapter 11, effective 07/01/2020 Rules and Regulations for Licensure of Nursing Care Facilities, Chapter 19, effective 06/26/2000 A revisit survey was conducted on 11/14/25 through 12/5/25 for all previous deficiencies cited on 7/10/25.	S0000	To address the facility's failure to have an appointed administrator who is licensed by the state, responsible for management of the facility, and reports to and is accountable to the governing body, the facility currently has a Nursing Home Administrator (NHA) whom has been appointed to the facility while the facility waits to have another individual complete the Administrator in Training program with a provisional NHA license with the appointed NHA, this individual will then further obtain their Wyoming Nursing Home Administrator License following the Administrator in training program. This said, currently on this day (12/10/2025), the facility has a NHA that will be the NHA for South Lincoln Nursing Center. This NHA will also be the preceptor/trainer for the other individual selected that obtained approval for their provisional NHA license and was issued this on 12/09/2025, this individual will then obtain a permanent Nursing Home Administrator License in the future prior to expiration of the provisional license on 05/09/2026. Since the provisional license has been obtained by the second individual at this time, this individual will now work through the administrator in training program and become a certified NHA within 6 months, prior to the provisional license expiration on 05/09/2026. S2900	Continued from page 1 (C) After consideration by the Board of Nursing Home Administrators on an individual basis; and (D) To an individual who does not meet all the licensing requirements under the Act, but who is of good character and meets the educational requirements as stated. (iii) A temporary license may be renewed for good cause for one (1) time if requested thirty (30) days prior to the termination of the initial temporary license. (iv) The administrator of a hospital with a connection nursing care wing can serve as the administrator and shall be licensed as a Wyoming Nursing Home Administrator. (v) The administrator shall enforce the rules and regulations relative to the level of health care and safety of residents and for the protection of their personal and property rights. (vi) The administrator shall plan, organize, and direct those responsibilities delegated to him by the governing body or its equivalent. (vii) An employee of the facility shall e authorized in writing to act on the administrator's behalf during his/her absence. This LICENSURE REQUIREMENT is NOT MET as evidenced by: Based on staff interview and review of Wyoming's active nursing home administrator's licenses, the Governing Body failed to employ a qualified nursing home administrator. The census was 16. The findings were: 1. Review of the Wyoming State Board of Nursing Home Administrators "Active Roster" last updated on 12/3/25 showed the facility administrator did not hold an active license or an active provisional license. 2. Interview with the facility administrator on 12/2/25 at 10:18 AM revealed he had applied for a provisional license; however, he confirmed he was not a licensed nursing home administrator. Further interview revealed the facility did not have anyone else available in the	S2900	working to obtain the NHA license, the first NHA will remain the named NHA for South Lincoln Nursing Center. To continue monitoring this, an RN working on state survey results and the POC, will get on to the Wyoming State Board of Nursing Home Administrators active license list on the 15th of every month and verify, one that the first NHA continues to hold an active Wyoming NHA license, and two that the other individual who has obtained the Wyoming NHA provisional license has populated on the Wyoming State Board of Nursing Home Administrators website and that this license does not become inactive prior to obtaining a Wyoming NHA license.
